

1. Police/City officials:
 - Public commitment to reaching out to youth encouraging and educating positive interactions.
 - Police investment in developing relationships with young people in the communities they serve.
2. For the community:
 - Can we go to where the young people are, and facilitate organization/conversations beyond marches and sit-ins (i.e. youth town hall meetings with government officials)?
3. Concerned about the local news propaganda:
 - 7News/9News specifically both made the following points in their coverage -
 - Protests are slowing police responses
 - Protestors have used swear words
 - Specifically the East HS walkout protestors cheered when officers were hit, but this was reported with no confirmation.
4. What is the ultimate goal of this movement?
5. How do we tell schools to support students' efforts?
 - They're getting unexcused absences.
 - Encouraged to do it on their own time.
6. Ongoing for years - race (and other issues)
 - Dialogues in neighborhoods that include all - Dems & Repubs, Occupy & Tea, house & homeless, old & young, abled & disabled, etc. Great city? Become the international leader in Truth & Reconciliation.
 - Train leaders in all neighborhoods, races, genders, abilities, etc, etc to confront issues deeply.
 - Convene summit of activists, nonprofits, agencies, etc to develop city advisory council that will address issues of power and privilege. Give them some kind of investigative powers.
 - Revise grand jury processes.
 - Implement REAL restorative justice throughout judicial system that will address systemic issues.
7. Benjamin F. Stapleton - Denver Mayor, 1923-1931(33rd) and 1935-1947 (35th)
 - Former KKK member
 - How does Denver with a black mayor celebrate a terrorist?
8. I would like information gathered and then disseminated via the Denver County website with statistics about the following:
 - Number of arrests per zip code
 - Number of convictions per zip code
 - Breakdown on % by race on stats
 - Number (%) of African Americans and minorities that are called and serve on juries

9. My cousin is a firefighter in St. Louis afraid for his life. What have you seen in regards to treatment of first responders of color by other officers and community?
